Forgiveness Education

- Forgiveness education is a curriculum for children in K through 8th grade classrooms. The curriculum was developed for each grade level by the IFI. It encompasses 12-16 lesson plans related to teaching children about respect, inherent worth, empathy, and forgiveness. Along with the curriculum guides, other supplemental materials are provided in order for the lessons to be successful (books, DVDs, stuffed animals, etc.)
- The forgiveness education program has been endorsed by the United Nations
- IFI Forgiveness education programs have reached more than 25,000 students in Belfast, Northern Ireland as well as in Madison and Milwaukee, Wisconsin.
- The forgiveness education program is funded by multiple sources, allowing all materials and curriculum guides to be provided for the classrooms that utilize the program

The International Forgiveness Institute is dedicated to helping people gain knowledge about forgiveness and to use that knowledge for personal, group, and societal renewal.

The IFI has been featured in virtually every major newspaper in the country (Chicago Tribune, Los Angeles Times, Philadelphia Inquirer, Wall Street Journal, Christian Science Monitor, Washington Post, and many others)

Representatives from the IFI have appeared on Tom Brokaw's NBC Nightly News, ABC News 20/20, Good Morning America, and a host of radio programs, including the BBC, National Public Radio, and others.

Time magazine, Christianity Today and others have run major articles in which the IFI has played a central role in the story.
